

On-Campus Communications Intern Needed

The College of Fine and Applied Arts is looking for a communications intern for the spring 2018 semester. The intern will work with the communications director to promote the college through success stories, social media, photography and more. Projects include:

- Drafting press releases and newsletter articles
- Compiling a monthly social media calendar and crafting engaging posts
- Writing faculty, alumni and student success stories
- Photographing various college events and activities
- Brainstorming new and innovative ways to promote the college on campus, in the community and beyond

The ideal candidate will be detail-oriented, deadline-driven, possess strong writing skills and have experience managing organizational social media accounts. Photography experience is also preferred.

Hours

Position hours will vary, but should average approximately 10 hours weekly to ensure 3 hours of course credit. Some of the work can be done remotely with proper hours tracking.
