Documenting Dutch Culture

Explore The Netherlands with Communication faculty Lynette and Philip Holman / 262-2487 / holmanlm1@appstate.edu. Documenting Dutch Culture will provide a historical and intercultural communication context in which today's students can explore their contemporary understanding of Northern European culture through documentary and travel photography. Through readings, photo critiques, class discussion and visits to points of interest in Amsterdam, Rotterdam and The Hague, students will be able to understand the impact of Dutch culture on the rest of the world.
