

Internship Position: Marketing Outreach

Work with Parent to Parent FSN-HC to help us fulfill our mission:

- To reach every family in our seven-county service area who wants our support.
- To be known as a caring, compassionate organization that is:
 - integrated into the communities we serve
 - creating a lasting impact
 - increasing understanding and acceptance of individuals with diverse abilities and special needs

This is an opportunity to help Parent to Parent FSN-HC develop creative and effective methods to reach more families, organizations and businesses. Fresh perspectives are welcomed.

- Parent to Parent Family Support Network-High Country is a program that provides information and support to families who have children with special needs. We are a grant-supported community outreach program of the Reich College of Education at Appalachian State University. The office is in the Children's Developmental Services Agency located at 2359 Highway 105 in Boone.
- Creativity, knowledge of the benefits and challenges of various communication methods, ability to communicate effectively and work well with a diverse group of people, flexibility, dependability, a positive attitude, willingness to accept feedback and attention to detail will be needed. Familiarity with children with special needs would be a plus but not required.
